

St. Andrew Catholic School Summer Camp 2016

Dates: July 11–July 15 and July 18–July 22.

Students may attend one week or both weeks. Students may attend just the morning sessions or remain at St. Andrew for the full day, but students who do not attend morning sessions may not attend the afternoon sessions.

Mornings:

St. Andrew Catholic School will offer a brand new, research-based, summer reading camp over two weeks to students entering Grades 1, 2, and 3 at St. Andrew in the 2016–2017 school year. Students will experience reading instruction in comprehension, accuracy, fluency and vocabulary to maintain and expand reading skills during the summer months.

Students should be dropped off between 7:30am and 8:00am, and picked up at 12:00pm. Children not picked up by 12:05pm will be charged a late fee of $1 per minute.

The cost is $25 per student per week.

Afternoons:

St. Andrew Catholic School will offer activities including arts & crafts, music & movement, sports, and water play.

Students attending all day must bring lunch. A snack will be provided in the afternoon.

Students should be picked up by 6:00pm. A late fee of $1 per minute will be charged.

The cost is $50 per student per week.
