

God in all things

Dear St. Andrew Catholic School Families,

At St. Andrew Catholic School, we believe that spiritual and academic growth is a lifelong process so we invite all to our welcome back mass at St. Andrew Catholic Church this Sunday, August 13, 2017 at 10:30 am. All students wearing their St. Andrew Catholic School uniform will receive a free dress pass. We will have a small social after mass in our St. Andrew Parish Center. The class that has the most students attending will receive a pizza party, so please be sure to sign in when you enter our St. Andrew Catholic Parish Center.

Blessings,
Latrina Peters-Gipson

Are you interested in becoming a Reader at our school Mass?
If so, we invite you to join the Reader Ministry.

If you have heard Gods call to proclaim His Word, we encourage you to explore the opportunity of becoming a Lector here at St. Andrew.

Classes will take place after school on Fridays, from 3:20 to 4:20 and continue throughout the school year.

The first session begins August 25, 2017.

Note: you may be in one liturgical ministry at a time, (Usher, Reader, Choir)

You must be in 4th through 8th grade and willing to speak in front of an audience.

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since the Lector proclaims not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God's message competently.

In becoming a Lector, you are accepting the responsibility to do your best, to practice, to make frequent self-evaluations and to continually look for ways to improve your ability to communicate the Word of God clearly to the congregation.

The ministry of a lector is a wonderful work, and an extremely rewarding ministry. Through your own sacrifice of time, effort, and preparation, God's living Word continues to be proclaimed to all of his people; the young, the old, the troubled, the hopeless, the happy and to those in need of comfort. To be a lector is to be given an opportunity for your own personal growth in Jesus Christ.

If you are interested, please sign and return to your teacher by August 23, 2017.
