

Middle School Summer Reading

6th- Tangerine By Edward Bloor

7th-Belle Prater's Boy BY Ruth White

8th - Let the Circle BE Unbroken by Mildred D. Taylor

Choose one of the following projects to create after you read your novel.

Scrapbook

-Use a photo album or make your own scrapbook out of construction paper and ribbon. Select photos from magazines, old family photos, and drawings and scrapbook decorations that depict the following items from your story: main characters, settings, main idea, author's purpose, climax, finale and best chapter in your book. Add a brief summary on every page.

Create a collage to represent the book.

Your collage should have at least 10 photos or illustrations.
Write a key describing each item on the collage.

Create a board or card game about the book.

- The game should include details about the setting, characters, and plot to show knowledge of the book.
- Include instructions about how to play.

Create an illustrated timeline showing important events from the book.

- Choose at least 10 important events from the story. Write a description of each event, and draw & color an illustration for each event.
- The events must be in the order in which they occurred.
